

Creative ways into work - Free Training

We've free creative training to support people in East Durham this Spring. The sessions aim to improve your pathway into employment in the Adult Social Care and creative sectors.

With our team of artists, we've six workshops exploring how imagination and creativity can support communication while building your confidence and experience.

The training will include practical tips on interview techniques, positive communication, dementia awareness, developing skills and delivering creative activities in care homes and communities.

Join us for:

Register your interest by May 27 by calling us on 0191 261 1619 or email
information@equalarts.org.uk

- Free training delivered by professional artists and trainers
- Six half day sessions
- Sessions in building confidence and increasing skills and knowledge
- Friendly and inclusive workshops providing guidance and peer support
- Place-based learning shadowing artists' workshops.

